

Developing and growing the SCPHN Workforce

Event date - Friday 14th July 2023

Event time – 1pm – 3pm

Event location – On-line via MS Teams

1.00pm	Welcome and introductions Jean Hayles, Deputy Regional Head of Nursing, Midwifery and Public Health, NHS England
1.10pm	Nursing & Midwifery Council new standards of proficiency for specialist community public health nurses Aditi Chowdhary-Gandhi, Education and Standards Manager, Nursing & Midwifery Council. This presentation will introduce and analyse the new SCPHN standards, there will be an opportunity for questions during the webinar and a chance to submit further questions to the NMC following the webinar.
1.45pm	Principles and process for the Demand Assessment, Commissioning and Procurement of SCPHN course places in the North West of England Libby Sedgley, Education Management Lead, NHS England This presentation will outline and explain the demand assessment, expression of interest and payment process relating to the commissioning and procurement of course places to grow and develop the SCPHN workforce.
2.05pm	Break
2.15pm	Grow your own SCPHN workforce. Natalie Bradley, Apprenticeships Relationship Manager, National Talent for Care Team, NHS England This presentation will showcase the opportunities available to grow your own SCPHN workforce using an apprenticeship career pathway.
2.35pm	Workforce development of a SCPHN team Rhiannon Evans, Clinical Operational Manager for Children and Young People, Liverpool, Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust This presentation will offer an overview of one teams workforce development achievements and plans.
2.55pm – 3.00pm	Closing comments